Decimal Animals

Materials: base 10 blocks, base ten blocks paper (optional)

1. Create an animal using base 10 blocks. Be creative!

   = 1
   = 0.1
   = 0.01

2. Draw your animal and record the number of wholes, tenths and hundredths used to create it.

3. Calculate the total value of your animal. Show your work.

4. Create a second animal and repeat steps 2 and 3.

5. Calculate the difference between the values of your two animals. Show your work.
Animal one is made from ___ wholes, ___ tenths and ___ hundredths. It has a total value of ___. Animal two is made from ....

The difference between the values of my two animals is ___. I know this because .....