

Interpret Fractions as Division

---

1. Write three word problems that involve division with whole numbers. One problem should have a whole number quotient, one problem should have a quotient that is a fraction less than 1, and one problem should have a quotient that is a mixed number.
2. Represent each problem with a visual fraction model and equation.
3. Write a justification explaining why the word problems will result in each type of quotient.