Skeletal Models

Materials: 3D shapes, toothpicks and playdough balls (frozen peas or chickpeas can be used in place of playdough)

1. Choose a three-dimensional shape.

2. Make a skeletal model of the shape using the materials on your table.

3. Draw and label a diagram of your skeletal model.

4. Name the attributes of your three-dimensional shape.

Word Bank: faces   edges   vertex vertices   base   cube   prism   pyramid